Outpatient Infusion Systems (OIS) and Medical Specialties Distributors (MSD) Announce the Addition of Ellen Atas, RN, OCN to Oncology Team

ATLANTA, GA – August 22, 2011 - Outpatient Infusion Systems (OIS) and Medical Specialties Distributors (MSD), announce the addition of Ellen Atas, RN, OCN to its clinical staff, effective August 22, 2011.

Ms. Atas brings solid clinical knowledge, management experience and business acumen to the OIS ambulatory pump program, and MSD medical surgical supply and biomedical services business. Most recently she served as Nurse Manager for Southwest Hematology/Oncology (SWHO) in Phoenix, AZ where she supervised a team of oncology nurses, medical assistants and pharmacy technicians. Ms. Atas also was a chemotherapy nurse for SWHO with direct responsibility for delivering care and oversight of the clinic's research patients.

Prior to this, she worked in nursing for several leading oncology clinics in the U.S., including: the Mayo Clinic Cancer Center in Scottsdale, AZ; Maryland Hematology/Oncology Associates in Frederick, MD, and as a traveling nurse for Medical Express. Previous to nursing, Ellen was a successful small business entrepreneur. Ms. Atas earned her nursing degree from Frederick Community College in Frederick, MD.

In her new role, Ms. Atas will be assisting the Director of Clinical Services in providing clinical support related to products and programs used by patients, oncology practices, community based cancer centers, and OIS/MSD personnel. Ms. Atas will also be assisting with program education and in-servicing, representing OIS and MSD to professional groups; and other clinical and sales-related activities.

"Ellen brings strong professional experience both clinically and in sales," said Greta Dudley, RN, OCN, Director of Clinical Services for Outpatient Infusion Systems. "She has first-hand knowledge of OIS Paperless and will be able to bring valuable insight from the customer perspective as we continue to make advances to the paperless platform and no doubt will be a tremendous asset to our program."

About Outpatient Infusion Systems: Outpatient Infusion Systems (OIS), an MSD company, is an accredited ambulatory pump provider serving the oncology marketplace. Working in partnership with oncology clinics across the U.S., OIS helps practices improve clinical outcomes for patients on ambulatory infusion and streamline processes and workflow within the clinic. The company's new technology system, OIS Paperless, eliminates paper-based forms and saves clinicians valuable time to implement the program. OIS is headquartered in Alpharetta, GA and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of
